

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY APPELLATE PANEL OF THE TENTH CIRCUIT

IN RE: COURT OPERATIONS
DURING A LAPSE IN APPROPRIATIONS.

GENERAL ORDER NO. 7
April 8, 2011

Before CORNISH, Chief Judge, MICHAEL, NUGENT, BROWN, THURMAN,
RASURE, KARLIN, ROMERO, and SOMERS, Bankruptcy Judges.

The Court enters this Order to enable the Court to fulfill its constitutional duty to continue to hear and resolve cases during any lapse in appropriations.

As the duties performed by all employees and judicial officers of this Court are necessary and essential to the continued resolution of cases according to normal schedules and priorities, the Court hereby orders them to continue to work full time during any lapse in appropriations, unless specifically directed otherwise by the Chief Judge of this Court. To the fullest extent practicable during a lapse in appropriations, Court activities shall be limited to those functions necessary and essential to the continued resolution of cases. The incurrence of travel and other expenses shall be limited to those necessary to support the operations of the Court.

Unless modified, revoked or extended by the Chief Judge of this Court, this Order shall remain in effect through and including April 22, 2010.

For the Court:

Honorable Tom R. Cornish
Chief Judge
